Purpose

2.1 General Purpose

In furtherance of the general purpose for which the University was formed as stated in its Articles of Incorporation, it is hereby declared that the primary purpose for which the University is organized is as follows:

- (a) To operate exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations promulgated there under as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and to engage in any and all lawful activities incidental to the foregoing purposes, except as restricted herein.
- (b) The specific purpose of the University is general education and the advancement of learning in service of truth. In the pursuit of truth, the University is committed to the Catholic vision of the human person and pursues human questions from this fundamental perspective, respectfully engaging views from other faith traditions or no faith tradition. The University is guided by the rich Catholic and Marianist Tradition, which holds that both faith and reason are mutually reliable guides in this pursuit of truth.

More precisely, it is the purpose of the University to see that its operations shall be conducted in such a manner that the University is implementing to the fullest degree possible the MISSION OF THE UNIVERSITY as set forth below and is making full use of the unique skills and the dedication of the members of the Society of Mary, Province of the United States.

It is also the responsibility of the University to see that the Marianist heritage and tradition is continuously integrated with the operations of the University and that the University maintains its rich identity as a Catholic University in line with the signature document: Characteristics of Marianist Universities.

2.2 Mission of the University

The following is the MISSION OF THE UNIVERSITY:

St. Mary's University, as a Catholic Marianist University, fosters the formation of people in faith and educates leaders for the common good through community, integrated liberal arts and professional education, and academic excellence.

Our mission statement incorporates the Characteristics of Marianist Universities. There are five elements that characterize the Marianist approach to education: educate for formation in faith; provide an excellent education; educate in the family spirit; educate for service, justice and peace; and educate for adaptation and change.

2.3 Hiring for Mission Statement

Responsive to the Catholic identity of St. Mary's University and to its sponsorship by the Society of Mary, the following hiring policies are honored:

- (a) To further its objectives, the University shall recruit and appoint qualified faculty and staff who, whether Catholic or not, are committed to actively supporting the mission of the University.
- (b) To further its objectives, the University shall give special consideration to recruiting and appointing qualified faculty members of the Society of Mary, the Daughters of Mary Immaculate, and lay Marianists to positions at the University.
- (c) To further its objectives, the University shall give special consideration to recruiting and appointing qualified active members of the Roman Catholic faith to positions at the University.

Manifest competence for a position is a requisite in all the above situations. No one is hired for the "Marianist" or "Catholic" reason alone. Any Catholic and Marianist candidates who are hired under the above hiring policies must clearly be qualified for the positions, and are subject to all of the performance reviews within the University.

2.4 Financial Resources of the University

No part of the net earnings of the University shall inure to the benefit of any Member (as defined below), Director, Trustee (as defined below) or Officer of the University, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the University affecting one or more of its purposes) and no Member, Director, Trustee or Officer of the University, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the University.

No substantial part of the activities of the University shall include the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the University shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Bylaws, the University shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations promulgated there under as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by any organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Upon the dissolution of the University or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the University shall be distributed exclusively to the Marianist Province of the United States or its successors; if such distribution is not possible or feasible, then to the Chaminade Foundation, a non-profit corporation and legal presence of the General Administration of the Society of Mary in the United States; if the foregoing options are not permitted or feasible, then the assets shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations promulgated there under as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
